To the student:

Each senior who is failing two or more subjects at the end of five and ten week marking periods is ineligible for senior privileges. In addition, to be eligible, a student may not have any disciplinary referrals or dress code violations. Every student's eligibility will be re-evaluated each five and ten week marking period.

In addition, each senior is eligible to use the Senior Lounge only if he or she has earned a minimum grade of 70 or better in every class as reported on the 5-week progress report and on the 10-week report card.
